

Students will be able to generate a digital movie.

Students will generate a complete digital video using proper editing techniques within iMovie.

Students will demonstrate the correct techniques for importing digital audio and video from various sources into iMovie.

Students will design their plan for their digital video movie.

